

Business is full of great ideas and intentions. . . success is in the execution.

Need to increase your bottom line to stay competitive - Trouble with failing project or executing strategy - Not sure your company is heading in the right direction and want better options?

3rd Wave Consulting can help by providing an independent business perspective. We are confident enough that if we cannot help, then we will find someone who can.

With our decades of experience and our proven strategy, 3rd Wave has helped many executives and organizations, in a wide variety of industries, salvage difficult or damaging situations and saved millions of dollars.

Have you ever been knocked back by your competitor's progress or growth? 3rd Wave can help you match and exceed such progress.

Creating successful strategies and projects from the start

Using the same methodology we use to rescue projects, 3rd Wave makes sure your new strategy, plans, and ideas are going to be successfully implemented. We will work with your team so all members gain the knowledge to carry on the initiative long after our services are needed.

Whether you have a new strategic plan, company initiative, or are re-energizing an old strategy, we can drive that plan into action and provide the tactical execution of your strategy. We will use our unique blend of expertise, experience and field proven approach to facilitate the effective implementation of your business needs.

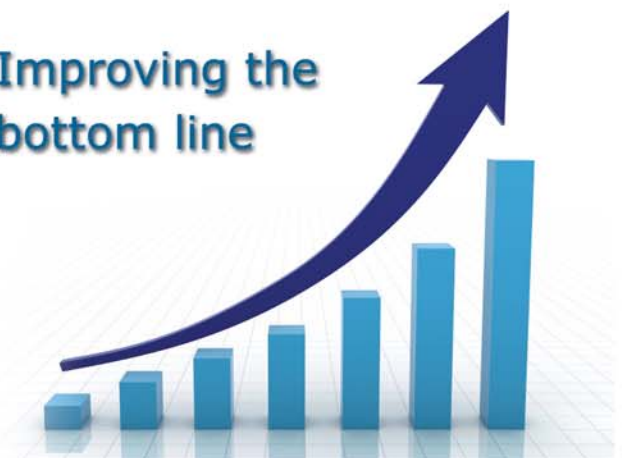

Statistically speaking, most projects fail and cost American businesses billions of dollars each year. 3rd Wave can help you beat the odds and not be another statistic. Our solutions are designed specifically for your success and provide flexibility for changing markets and environments. All of our projects ensure total company buy-in and transfer of knowledge to ensure your initiatives continue to work in the long term.

If your compensation is based on the bottom line, then you know the name of the game is to doing more with less, and 3rd Wave has a variety of approaches and methodologies that can help you regardless if you are large or small.

In addition to our proven methodology, 3rd Wave has a wide variety of tools to help stream line your business such as the Balance Score Card, Business Process Reengineering, Six Sigma, etc. 3rd Wave's staff has extensive experience in each area and is implemented by MBA's, PMP (Project Management Professional) credentials and Six Sigma Black Belt Certified professionals.
